Anything is Possible in Buellton - Even Flying Cats!

Buellton's Community Art Project Showcases our Community Artists' Playful Side

Buellton— (October 1, 2025) — Each month over the coming year, the City of Buellton will feature a different design and showcase the contributing artists from their community art project - “Up in the Air!”

October's featured banner, proudly sponsored by Pacific Gas and Electric Company, includes artwork from: Georgia McKeen, Joeleen Lee, Paisley Parson, and Penelope Paredes. You can view their original submissions here: <https://buellton.art/2025-october-up-in-the-air-art-feature>

This project was made possible by Buellton's Arts & Culture Program, the Santa Ynez Valley Children's Museum (our nonprofit partner), generous monthly sponsors, and the enthusiastic support of the Buellton community.
